

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

The Educational Psychology Program is designed to offer individuals the opportunity to: (a) apply principles of learning, cognition and motivation to vital problems in the area of education;

(b) Develop a solid understanding of research, assessment, and evaluation methodologies; and

(c) Develop an analytical and scholarly approach to critically assessing theoretical perspectives, research, and practice within and across content domains.

DISCIPLINE DIRECTORY

Mr. Henry Muribwathoho (Co-ordinator):
031-2607011: muribwathohoh@ukzn.ac.za

Ms. Fumane Khanare: 031-2603545:
khanare@ukzn.ac.za

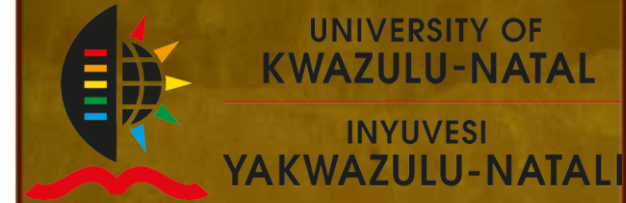

Dr. Linda Jairam: 031-2601438:
jairam@ukzn.ac.za

Dr. Thabi Ntombela: 031-2601342:
ntombela1@ukzn.ac.za

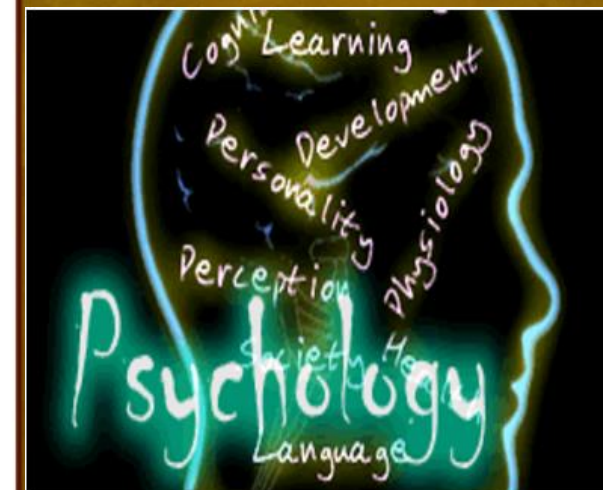

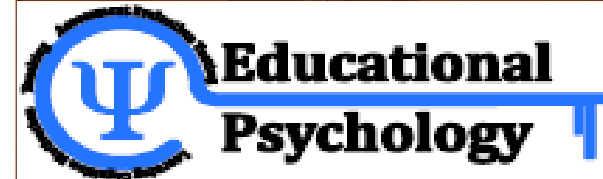

Mr. P. Mweli: 031-260-3549:
mwelip@ukzn.ac.za

DISCIPLINE OFFERINGS

- ◇ One offering in Educational Psychology at Bachelors level; and
- ◇ Three offerings in Educational Psychology at Honours-, Masters- and Doctoral levels.

The Discipline of Educational psychology is one of the most vibrant, popular, dynamic and versatile disciplines within the School of Education engaged in the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research and community engagement

BACHELORS LEVEL

Perspectives on Human Nature
(EDPY101) Second Semester

HONOURS LEVEL

Life Skills Education (EDLF714): Semester 1

Human Development and Learning
(EDPY701): Semester 1

School Psycho-educational Support
(EDPY707): Semester 2

Introduction to Inclusive Education (EDMG 701): Semester 2

MASTERS LEVEL

Inclusive Education Theory and Practice
(EDPY810): Semester 1

Psychological Assessments in Education
(EDPY811): Semester 1

Psychological Interventions in Education
(EDPY812): Semester 2

IF YOUR PASSION IS TO SUPPORT THE DIVERSITY OF LEARNERS IN SOUTH AFRICA, THEN EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY IS YOUR DISCIPLINE OF CHOICE

